COMPTROLLER IN COURT AGAINST SURROGATES

Prendergast Asks Writ to Force His System of Accounting on Fowler and Cohalan.

Differences between Surrogate Robert Fowler and John P. Cohalan and Comptroller Prendergast over the accounts in the Surrogate's Court developed into an open fight today when court proceedings were brought by the Comptroller to compel the Surrogate to adopt the Department of Finance's system of accounting.

The Surrogate has denied the Comptroller's right to invade their department of the county government. The Comptroller says forth in his petition for a writ of mandamus to force the Surrogate to accept his system, there should be a modern system of expense accounting in the probate and guardian department of the county.

SOCIETY FAVORITE WHO ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF BRIDE-TO-BE

Miss Rosalie G. Bloodgood was the hostess yesterday at a large luncheon at Sherry's in honor of Miss Katharine Dahlgren, who is to wed Richard S. Emmet early in January. Miss Bloodgood's guests included a large number of the debutantes of this and last season. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Bloodgood and is among the most attractive and popular young women in the younger social set.

GRACE METHODIST CHURCH OPENS 4-DAY FAIR TO-NIGHT

City Officials to Speak and "Movie" Stars to Aid—Gift by Mrs. Wilson.

Grace Methodist Episcopal Church begins to-night a four days' fair for the benefit of the social service work of the church, which includes fifteen night classes, a free motion picture theatre for children, gymnasium courses, industrial training courses for women and girls and a boy police division.

Borough President Marks, Chamberlain Maltbie and Fire Commissioner Adamson will speak to-night and for the remaining nights there will be lectures on the Mexican border, a demonstration by Lillian Walker, Anita Stewart and Frank Morey of making a moving picture and a review of the boy police. Sales of canes contributed by city officials, neckties given by Governors of nearly every State and handkerchiefs contributed by notable women, including Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, will be held.
